MSC BRIEFING

27 August 19 X

MEGINE STATEMENT

- 1. On 22 August, India's Prime Minister made unusually strong mixek on Communism in statement appearing in Congress Party's official Economic Review.
 - A. Condenned Communism's "suppression of individual freedom."
 - B. Said "its unfortunate association with violence encourage; a certain evil tendency in human beings."
 - C. "Communism has definitely allied itself to an approach of violence...its thought is violent and it does not seek to change by persuasion or peaseful, democratic pressures, but by coercion and indeed destruction and extermination."
 - D. Because it depends on violence, "the idea which it placed before the world became a tainted one."
 - E. Communism "fails partly because of its rigidity but even fore so because it ignores certain essential needs of human nature."
- II. Hehru's statements apparently reflect continuing reassessment foreign policy stimulated by:

Α.	His	"horror	and	frustration"	at	Magy's	execution.

- C. Recent Sino-Soviet attack on Tito and withdrawal Seviet aid from Yugoslavia.
- B. Short life of "hundred flowers" experiment in Communist Clina.
- III. Nehru statements do not mean abandonment of policy of "non-alignment."
 - A. Probably do reflect, however, distillusionment with sincerity of post-Stalin Soviet campaign of peacefulness and liberalization on which Mehru had begun to pin hopes for world peace.
 - B. Probably also reflects Nehru's recognition of more constant position of West.
 - C. Should lead Nehru to seek to moderate latest Sino-Soviet "hard line" and to display more sympathy with Western caution is dealing with Bloc.
- IV. Mehru may also have been partly motivated by consideration of western response in yielding to pressure for publication these notes
 - A. Five exeditor nations (US, UK, Canada, W. Germany, Japan) now meeting in Washington to consider ways helping India meet foreign exchange demands of Second Five-Year Plan.
